Updating you on local authority issues

CIL - a brief guide for local authorities

We have produced a special edition of Newsbites on Community Infrastructure Levy. This issue is aimed at local authorities and looks at how you go about setting, collecting and spending funds.

There are points here for landowners and developers too. It is important for everyone who could be affected by CIL to get involved in the setting of it and be aware of its implications.

Please do get in touch with any CIL (or other planning related) queries or comments.
