

Dispute resolution and litigation

Recent examples of our experience include:

- Acting for a client in successfully defending a £90 million breach of warranty and fraud claim, reported in the national press.
- Pursuing a £50 million claim against a firm of accountants for negligent advice in relation to an offshore tax planning scheme.
- Representing a subsidiary of a UK listed company in a £2.3 million breach of contract dispute. The case concluded with mediation, where a partial settlement was achieved.
- Representing a listed client company in defending a €10 million claim from an overseas customer, managing parallel proceedings in the UK and Italy, and settling for 1 per cent of the claim.
- Working with a network law firm in Germany to stop the disposal of, and to retrieve historic stolen manuscripts which were about to be sold at auction in Germany.
- Advising the board of a special health authority on a range of risk management issues including a framework for making safety-related decisions and policy for selecting and allocating organs.
- Acting for a major education provider, the first case of its kind, in connection with the re-procurement of cleaning services worth in excess of £9 million.
- Representing a public sector client in connection with a claim from a major drug manufacturer relating to the re-procurement of drug supplies to haemophiliacs.
- Project managing copyright and trade mark infringement proceedings in Poland and Slovak and Czech Republics.
